FOREWORD

Time has a way of sweeping our minds clean in the same way wind swirls the red dirt off majestic mesas. And though we don't object to being cleansed of the debris of the past, we like to hold on to those solid, wholesome materials that have gone into the building of our lives, the structuring of our futures.

With this as our chief inspiration, we, the staff of TSE HO TSO 1969, are pleased to offer you this pictorial review of a year in your school life. We hope that you will treasure the memories preserved here as much as we have appreciated the privilege of compiling them for you.

THEME

No one has ever seen Wind

only waving grasses

tossing branches

rippling water

only drifting snow

swirling red dirt

only monumental mesas

stark naked mesas

alone in the stillness of Wind's departure

No one has ever seen Wind

only marks on the land

marks on the people

marks on the days of the people

Wind toughens

Wind induces determination

Wind engenders tenacity

Wind humbles the arrogant

ruffles the stoic

haunts the timid

prostrates the impetuous

agitates the restless

baffles the wise

Wind is not to be gainsaid

Wind is never to be trifled with

Wind is ever to be propitiated

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT

Superintendent George E. Burns

Congratulations to the graduates of the Class of 1969, and greetings to all the Window Rock High School students

This has been a year of challenge and opportunity, and most of you have done well. This year also marks the end of the decade of the Sixties. None of us knows what the Seventies will hold in store for us, but it is certain that the Seventies will be another decade of change and challenge. To successfully meet the Seventies you will need to remember and use the training that you have received up to this time.

To the graduate, we wish you good luck and hope that the foundations formed here will be adequate for your needs. We look to you for leadership and are confident of your success.

We wish the undergraduate to return with renewed dedication to obtain an education that will help you the rest of your life.

Mr. Stanley Van Keuren has the important job of approving and checking the qualifications of prospective teachers before they are hired by the Board of Trustees.

Mr. Joe Linnane handles the finances for Window Rock School District No. 8.

MR. DOYNE WARD

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Mr. Doyne Ward, though new as Assistant Principal, has served Window Rock High School as teacher and coach for nine years. Born in Bee Branch, Arkansas, he now lives on campus with his wife, Helen, and two children, Pam — 5 years and Lisa — 2 years. In addition to his duties as Assistant Principal, Mr. Ward functions as Director of Athletics and, as such, schedules all of WRHS's athletic contests.

SECRETARIES

Mrs. Hazel Sanders

Mrs. Ora Slusser

Miss Patricia Karigan

Mrs. Anna Mac Plummer

Secretaries are the mortar without which the whole structure of education at Window Rock High School would collapse. Mrs. Sanders, secretary to the Principal, Mrs. Slusser, book store secretary; Miss Karigan, guidance secretary, and Mrs. Plummer, secretary to the Vice-Principal, are indispensable to the smooth operation of the learning process.

CAFETERIA AND MAINTENANCE

Mrs. Mary Shepherd and her competent cafeteria crew are poised to serve hundreds of hungry "Scouts." First Row L. to R. Mrs. Shepherd, Lucille Joe, Flora Yazzie, Gladys Talman, Desbah Morgan, Mary Manuchto and Julia Upshaw. Second Row L. to R. Alice White, Helen Curley, Lillian Atchitty, Nellie Kenny, Alice Burnside and Mary Alice Arviso.

Maintenance men L. to R. Vincent Shirley, Roy Dempsey, Dennis Williams, Marvin Prince, and Sidney Prince.

Is it as plainly in our living shown,
By slant and twist, which way the wind hath blown?

— Adelaide Crapsey

J. V. FOOTBALL

The Junior Varsity's season did not turn out as it was expected to, or to the liking of many of their fans, but never-the-less, they fought hard and upheld true fighting tradition of the Scouts. With the material that the J.V.'s will add to the varsity, the Scouts are expected to have a superior team next year.

Action was the word for the WRHS Student Council of 1969. The council was concerned with a variety of projects for the improvement of the school. One of the primary goals for this year was to raise money for a student lounge. A lounge would provide facilities for student activities before school and at noon. The council also tried to improve school-community relations by inviting various chapter officers to visit the school. The council urged participation in all clubs and took the initiative in getting new clubs started.

Producing an annual requires many hours of hard work. This year's Tse Ho Tso staff met the requirement. An annual goes through many preliminary stages before it becomes a completed yearbook. Photography, adapting pictures to the correct size, writing copy and transferring the page layouts to tri-paks are some of the tasks performed by the staff. Mr. Milton Bennett has carefully guided the staff toward the objective of making Tse Ho Tso 1969 the best WRHS yearbook yet.

DRIFTING SANDS

The Drifting Sands staff played a dual role in WRIIS this year. They produced the annual and the school paper. The members of the staff have worked many hours to keep the students and public informed of the many events and activities at WRIIS. Under the capable sponsorship of Mr. Milton Bennett the staff has produced six outstanding issues.
